In Which a Chivalrous Little Man Makes a Big Mistake.

He was a little man, but his firm, quick step and erect head showed that he weighed 16 ounces to the pound and all the confidence of a man weighing 100 pounds.

He stepped on the ice, till a street car was along and stopped aboard.

The car was full, and several people were standing. He took hold of a strap which led over the crowd and saw that all the others were standing while a number of men were occupying comfortable seats.

It riled him to see it, and when his eye fell upon a pale-faced little woman holding on to a strap, while a large, jolly-looking man sat near by, he could not remain silent.

"Come here," said he to the big man, "you is a jolly-looking while you have a seat."

"Yes," said the big man.

"Well, don't you think you ought to give up your seat to this woman, who has probably been hard at work during the day?"

"I do," said the big man by the collar and proceeded to drag him off the seat, but was interrupted by the woman, who grabbed him by the hair.

"Hold on!" cried the little man.

"That's what I'm doing," said the woman.

"But I mean let up on this. What do you mean by attacking me?"

"Look-a-here," said the female, "I didn't ask you to get men seats. Besides I want you to know that man you have hold of is my husband."

The little man let go of the big man, and the woman let go her hold on the hair, and order was restored, but the little man was quiet until he reached the end of his sentence, when he left the car, which he was bound to, mutter, "And such is life!" Peck's Sun. —

EVOLUTION OF NIAGARA.

The Estimation as to the Age of the World Famous Cataract.

Professor J. W. Spencer says the first conjecture as to the age of Niagara falls was made by Andrew Elliott in 1790.

Elliott believed the falls to be 55,000 years old. About 1811 Lyell estimated the age of the falls as 35,000 years. All of these early estimates were purely conjecture, but they were correct in assuming that the gorge had been excavated by the river. Professor Spencer, in estimating the progress of the falls, says that a little stream draining the Erie basin once fell about 200 feet above the brow of the Niagara escarpment. This stream was not even one-fourth the volume of the recent cataract and consequently excavated the gorge at a much slower rate than at present.

During the early history of the river the waters of the three upper lakes emptied through the Huron way of the Ottawa river. The height of the falls was indicated several times.

The first episode, represented by a small river falling 260 feet, lasted about 11,000 years. Then the height of the falls was increased to 400 feet and took the drainage of the upper great lakes. At the same time there was a series of cascades, three in all, the lower gaining on the upper until finally they were all united in one great cataract much higher than that of today.

Subsequently the waters were raised at the head of Lake Ontario, and the falls approximated to the present conditions after a lapse of 17,000 years from the end of the first episode. The age of the present falls is put at 1,000 years, and another 1,000 years was probably occupied by transitional changes of a very gradual character. It is now 8,000 years since Lake Huron emptied into Lake Erie for the first time. The land has risen about the outlet of Lake Erie, and if the present rate of change continues in 5,000 or 6,000 years the waters of the four upper lakes will be turned into the Mississippi river drainage at Chicago.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

MORE SALTY THAN THE DEAD SEA.

A Ton of Great Salt Lake Water Holds About 300 Pounds of Salt.

Water of the Great Salt Lake varies greatly in its contents of dissolved solids, depending upon the relation between the supply of water through streams and the evaporation. A fair average of total solids dissolved in the water of the lake at its present mean level is from 19 to 20 per cent by weight. But not all of this is common salt, for besides this ingredient the water contains sodium sulphate (barilla salts), magnesium chloride, calcium sulphate (gypsum) and potassium sulphate. A detailed analysis of water taken from the lake in August, 1858, was made by Dr. Talmage. This contained in all 19.56 per cent dissolved solids, of which 15.74 was common salt. Such water would yield of total solid matter 331 pounds to the ton, and of common salt about 314 pounds to the ton.

The Dead sea contains a greater proportion of solid matter dissolved in its waters than does the Great Salt lake. Much discrepancy exists among published accounts of its contents, the fluctuations in composition being due to the same causes that prevail in our lake—viz., the relation between the supply through inflowing streams and loss by evaporation. A sample taken from a depth of 1,110 feet carries 25.4 per cent of dissolved solids. This corresponds to 528 pounds to the ton, but if this only 7.63 per cent was common salt, or 61 per cent per ton.

Therefore, though the Salt lake carries a lower proportion of dissolved solids of all sorts than does the Dead sea, the lake contains more than double the proportion of salt. The chief solid constituent of the Dead sea water is not sodium chloride (common salt), but magnesium chloride. Strictly speaking, the water of our lake is much "brinier" than that of the Dead sea, common salt being the chief solid dissolved in the lake. Nevertheless the Dead sea is much more highly saturated with solids.

THE LABOR COMMISSION'S REPORT.

The report of the Commission which has been investigating the railway strike of last summer shows that the railroads were more to blame than the strikers. Twenty-four railroads, with a capitalization of $2,208,000,000, were in the General Managers' Association. This Association attempted to fix the wages of the 220,000 employees of the twenty-four roads. Railroad clerks do not authorize roads to form associations to fix wages nor to force their acceptance nor to battle with strikers. These features of the General Managers' Association were illegal. The extension of the Association would result in an aggregation of power and capital dangerous to the people and their liberties as well as to the railroad employers and their rights. When railroads are allowed to combine to fix wages for their joint protection, it is rank injustice to deny the right of labor upon railroads to unite for similar purposes. Until railroads set the example no great union of railroad employees was ever attempted. The refusal of the General Managers' Association to recognize and deal with labor organizations, such as the American Railway Union, was arrogant and absurd, when the standing of the Association before the law is considered.

The report censures the Pullman company for reducing wages but not reducing rents nor the salaries of the managers and superintendents, and the conduct of the Pullman strikers is commended as manly, dignified and conservative. It condemns the refusal of the Pullman company and the Railway Managers' Association to arbitrate, as arbitration would have prevented the loss of life, property and wages occasioned by the strike.

The Commission says the people through their legislatures should control monopolies and corporations and protect labor in its rights and repress its wrongs. It makes many suggestions, which if acted upon will, no doubt, tend to prevent strikes in the future and maintain more cordial relations between railroads and their employes.

The synopsis of the report of the Commission telegraphed affords railroads very little consolation. It shows that they have acted illegally and set the men in their employ an example in law breaking. They have the advice of the best legal talent in the country and knowingly violate the law, while their employes have no such advisers and only follow the example of their employers. The authorities permit the corporations to set the law aside when it interferes with their schemes and purposes, but the moment their employes side-track a Pullman, the United States army is ordered out to shoot them down or they are prosecuted for obstructing the United States mails.

WAITE'S PROCLAMATION.

Governor Waite of Colorado issued a Thanksgiving proclamation. He was defeated for Governor and, therefore, not being in a very amiable mood, appended some strong language to the proclamation. He says:

The soil and the bowels of the earth have responded to the energy of man, art and science have flourished as never before in the story of the world; wonderful strides have been taken in the knowledge of adapting the materials of nature to the requirements of advanced civilization, we find without limit ready to assist, forthwith did the noble touch of industry, skill and intelligence. But withal, the overhanging threat to our civilization is the constant recurrence of commercial and industrial panics, which blight the lives and hopes of millions of able-bodied and skillful beings.

Monopoly—robbery, under the form of law—is the curse of our times and withers the best physical and mental energies of the people, and while we may be exceedingly thankful for our good fortune and unbound resources, let us bear in mind that only by conscientious regard of the industrial rights of all people can the blessings of religious and economic freedom be permanently established.

This is forcible and truthful. With bountiful harvests, there is more destruction than was ever before known in the country. With vast undeveloped resources, there are hundreds of thousands in enforced idleness. With millions of ounces of silver bullion stored in the Treasury and mints built for coining purposes idle, the Government is issuing bonds to provide gold for shipment to Europe. Wall Street decrees that it shall be so; the President approves the decree, and every Democrat from the Northern States, except Maguire of California, who voted in the House of Representatives against the mandate is defeated.

There was recently given in Derbyshire, England, an instance of the remarkable decline in real estate in that country. A valuable estate which twenty years ago sold for £20,000 was bought for £5,500.

The new Constitution of New York provides that public officers shall not accept passes on railroads or franks from telegraph and telephone companies.

GENERAL CASSIUS M. CLAY, despite the efforts of his children to prevent it, succeeded in marrying pretty Dora Richardson. Clay is 84 years of age, the bride is only 15.

The Jeffersonians and Populists in Alabama have united and resolved themselves into the National People's party.

AN EXODUS OF NEGROES.

Killed Himself Over the Love of a Girl.

FATAL FAMILY QUARREL.

Serious Trouble Feared at Washington Court House.

A Serious Condition of Affairs.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, November 14.—The citizens of Washington Court House have a scheme for revenge which will probably not be carried out. The plan was to summon Col. Coit, who commanded the regiment that shot down citizens at Washington Court House while they were trying to lynch a negro charged with rape. Col. Coit and Sheriff Cook were to be thrown into jail when they arrived and the Coroner, who seems to be acting with the citizens, would become sheriff ex-officio, then the mob would be formed and Coit and Cook lynched. Although Coit had been summoned by the Coroner as a witness he refuses to go. Governor McKinley offered to protect him if he would go, but Coit refused. The members of Coit's regiment have asked to be sent as escort to him. If the Governor refuses to send an escort, the men say they will go armed as private citizens and protect Coit. In that case if shooting occurs they can be held and tried for murder. The question that confronts the Governor is, shall the sheriff be elected and sworn to execute the law and the Colonel ordered to his assistance, be sacrificed for doing their official duty? Rev. Dr. Gladden, who denounced the mob, has been threatened with assassination if he goes to Washington Court House.

A Love-lorn Swain Ends His Life.

LOS ANGELES, November 14.—Percy Gray, a young man prominent in society here, committed suicide to-day by shooting himself in the left side at the foot of the flag pole on Crown Hill. He had been engaged for eleven months to marry a beautiful young woman of Kingston, Ill., who had recently been visiting in this city, but who returned about two weeks ago to her home. The story is that the girl was fickle and that lately he received a letter from her telling him she could not marry him. Since then he has been very despondent.

Illegal Registration.

SACRAMENTO, November 14.—Habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Louis Cohn, adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Judge Wallace of San Francisco for refusing to answer questions regarding his residence last October and as to his acquaintance with one L. Steinberger, on trial for illegally registering Cohn, on the ground that he would incriminate himself, was heard before the Supreme Court to-day. Counsel argued the question and the case was continued until to-morrow.

The Jays Gaining Ground.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—The Japanese Minister, Mr. Kurine, has received the following cable dispatch from Tokio: Our army occupied Taliwan on the afternoon of the 8th instant, having destroyed Chinese torpedoes. Our fleet, transports and torpedo boats are safely anchored in the bay. The torpedo station, with its equipments of charts of the submarine torpedoes, eight cannon and ten telephone lines and the telegraphs, have been captured.

Budd Still Holds the Fort.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 14.—At midnight to-night the returns to the Associated Press from 2222 precincts give Estee 109,426, Budd 110,506; Budd's plurality 1080, with fifty-two precincts and the official canvass in sixteen counties to hear from. To-night's returns show a gain of 153 votes for Estee over last night's figures.

A Child Dies With Hydrophobia.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—Virgie C. McDermott, the 4-year-old daughter of C. H. McDermott, was bitten by a dog nine weeks ago and to-day died with all the symptoms of hydrophobia. The dog was a black mongrel cur and bit the girl twice in the face and also bit a neighbor's dog. The dog which was bitten shows signs of rabies.

A New Election Ordered.

MERCED, Cal., November 14.—The Board of Supervisors to-day ordered a new election for the office of County Clerk, the Republican candidate, A. M. Vanderlip, and the Democratic candidate, E. A. Hicks, each having received 745 votes.

Southern Negroes Leaving for Liberia.

NEW YORK, November 14.—The White Star Liner Adriatic took in her steerage a party of twenty colored people bound for Liberia. This is the advance guard from the army of 4,000 negroes that is said to be gathered in southern ports awaiting means of deportation.

An Elevator Falls.

NORWALK, Ohio, November 14.—A passenger elevator in the department store of the Hoyt and Jackson Co. fell from the fourth floor at noon to-day, four persons being more or less injured but none fatally.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Convention at New Orleans.
NEW ORLEANS, November 14.—Neither ex-Grand Master Workman Powderly nor Eugene Debs, who have been invited, were present when the Knights of Labor Convention was called to order to-day. It was stated that Powderly would arrive to-morrow. Debs telegraphed that he had been summoned to appear at Chicago Friday and was unable to attend. Ninety delegates, representing various States of the union, were in attendance.

Colonel L. T. Sambola Jones appeared as special representative of Governor Fisher, and read a letter from him commanding this order. Mayor Fitzpatrick made an address of welcome on behalf of the city, and Grand Master Sovereign replied for the knights. After the public ceremonies the public was asked to retire. Sovereign is authority for the statement that he is not a candidate in the sense of making an active canvas.

A Fatal Family Quarrel.

POUGHKEEPSIE, November 14.—Charles Baker and his wife of Tivoli, had a quarrel at their house at that place this afternoon, when the husband took up a double-barreled shotgun and discharged both barrels at his wife, both shots taking effect. The injured woman ran out of the house and dropped dead. Baker was intoxicated. After committing the deed he rushed out of the house and disappeared up the Hudson River Railway track, and at last accounts had not been captured. A domestic in the house witnessed the shooting. The murdered woman leaves several small children.

Southron Murderers.

LAWRENCE, Kan., November 14.—Harvey and Arnold, aged 17 and 19, murderers of Mayor Marsh of Kidsley, pleaded guilty to-day to murder in the first degree. The sentence imposed by Judge Vandiver was imprisonment in the penitentiary until the Governor shall decide whether they be hanged or not. The boys were taken on the 9 o'clock train to Leavenworth by Sheriff Heath, but not before a mob had gathered and threatened lynching.

Walking Across the Continent.

J. W. Raport, who is footling across the continent from New York to San Francisco, on a wager of $5,000 arrived in Elko Monday. He left the starting point May 10, 1894, without a penny and is due in San Francisco December 1, 1894. He has to report to every second foreman and ticket agent, and is not allowed to ride, but must walk all the way, a distance of 3,000 miles. He has worn out six pairs of shoes and a third suit of clothes.

A Town Lot Swindle.

SAN JOSE, Cal., November 14.—C. A. Heidelberg, owner of four lots at Port Alviso valued at $5 each, has been going about the State selling the lots over and over again to different parties and has realized large sums. Numerous deeds have been sent to Recorder Owen to be placed on record and the victim has been informed of the state of affairs.

Clay and His Bride.

LEXINGTON, Ky., November 14.—Whitehall, the castle of General Cassius M. Clay, is closed to all visitors to-day by General Clay in fear that some harm may come to his bride and will not allow her to leave the house.

The Standard Victorious.

PALO ALTO, November 14.—Stanford won its first victory of the season to-day by defeating the Reliance team of Oakland by a score of 23 to 0. Stanford outlasted the Reliance at every point.

The Gold King at Work.

WASHINGTON, November 14.—Silver coinage in British Honduras has been demonetized and hereafter gold will be the standard coin.

A Jury Hard to Obtain.

WOODLAND, November 14.—Two more jurors in the Hatch case were secured to-day making eight so far.

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embodied in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectively cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from even objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug-gists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A Republican Ratification Ends in a Tragedy.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., November 14.—The first fruit of the Republican victory in this Congressional district was the murder of Blake Robertson, the 18-year-old son of Thomas A. Robertson, formerly Congressman.

Last night about 200 negroes and a few white men gathered in the lower part of town to form a procession. There was a dispute as to whether the whites or blacks should march first. In consequence only one white man paraded.

Marshal Neighbors started to examine negro shells, which were found to be loaded. George Wilson fired at him. The bullet passed through his coat and lodged in the stomach of Robertson. Neighbors then shot Wilson in the arm.

In Judge English's court this morning Marshal Neighbors tried to kill Wilson, but was prevented. Wilson is in jail. The negroes are greatly excited.

A Desperate Deed.

NASHVILLE, November 14.—Chancellor Andrew Anderson of this city, was shot and instantly killed this afternoon in the corridor of the Court House by George K. Whitworth, for six years past Clerk and Master of the court. Whitworth then shot and fatally wounded himself. Chancellor Allison's son, Granville, was appointed a few days ago to succeed Whitworth as clerk.

IS WASHOE REPUBLICAN?
The Election Returns Prove That It Is Not.

In Washoe county 1,730 votes were cast for Member of Congress. Of these H. F. Bartine, the Republican candidate received 555, or less than one-third of the whole number, yet the Changeling says Washoe is Republican.

In Washoe county 1,774 votes were polled for Governor. Of this number A. C. Cleveland, notwithstanding the odds made in his interest, received 823 votes, or considerably less than one-half the whole number, yet the Changeling asserts that Washoe is Republican. For State Senator there were 1,699 votes polled of which S. Summerfield, Republican, received 646, but still the Changeling says Washoe is Republican.

For members of the Assembly there were 6,362 votes of which H. H. Beck received 1,029 and Dr. Hogan 896, while the highest number received by Republicans were 725 and 627, by P. L. Flanagan and Colonel Stanley respectively, yet the Changeling declares that Washoe is Republican.

The above are the only candidates voted for, which distinctly represented party principles and the returns show that the Republicans are in a minority.

Now as to the trading for Cleveland. George E. Peckham, Populist candidate for Governor, an honest man, well known to the citizens of Washoe, received only 821 votes, while Mr. Doughty for Congress on the same ticket received 677 votes; Mr. Sawyer who is not known here received 307 votes for Attorney General, and Mr. Steele, also unknown here, received 321 votes for State Treasurer. Men voted for Mr. Peckham who did not vote for any other candidate, so they say, on the Populist ticket, and yet he received less votes than any other candidate on his ticket, showing conclusively that he was not in the trade and that he was sold out to help Mr. Cleveland.

If the opposition to Republicanism had not been divided and no trades had been made in the interest of Cleveland, the majority against the Republicans would have been greater than it was two years ago.

Runaways.

Three young hopefuls named Geo. King, Walter McDonald and Emmitt Kennedy, aged respectively 10, 12 and 13 years, arrived from Virginia night before last at a late hour, having run away from home. Dick Nash took the young gentlemen in hand and lodged them in the police court-room and their parents were wired that they were in safe keeping. One of the boys told the JOURNAL reporter that he had never seen any other place than Virginia and Gold Hill and the other two had never been farther away from home than Carson, and that they had made up their minds to see a little of the world, and thought Reno was the biggest part of it from what they had heard. When asked for an opinion concerning their investigations, one of them replied that he thought it was a bum town, that every other man here was a policeman or a defeated candidate, and if this was the world he was willing to go back to Virginia and take chances on a lucking that wouldn't last more than five minutes anyway. Another said he had seen all he wanted to see long before he arrived at Reno.

The boys will be held until their parents can be heard from.

Daniel Sully.

The interesting story contains two comedy under-plots and a picturesque love episode. A military interest is given the play by the fact that O'Neill is a militia captain, and there is some clever satire at the expense of the pension laws, and the circumlocutory methods of the Congressional Committee. The character of O'Neill is very well adapted to Mr. Sully's distinct style of Hibernian impersonation, and affords him opportunities for display of finer talents than he can constantly show in any of his other roles."

Board of Commissioners.

The Board of Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. The contract for fencing the road between Howard's and Brown's, terminating at T. A. Read's, was let to S. Ede at the price of $30, and it was ordered that a notice be served on the V. & T. railroad to construct a cattle guard on said road.

Relief was granted J. Brandham and family to pay transportation to Sacramento, amounting to $15.

Canvassing the Returns.

The Commissioners commenced canvassing the election returns yesterday. The First Ward returns were straight, but in the Third Ward John E. Jones, for Governor, gained five votes. The footings on the tally-list were incorrectly added up. He was credited with only 141 votes, though he received 146 votes. Only two Wards were canvassed when the Board adjourned.

Recount in Ormsby.

All the defeated candidates on the Silver ticket will call for a recount of the second precinct. This course has been decided on from various pieces of information which have reached the Silversmen. The opposition to a recount of the part of the Republicans organs is very suggestive. No honest man can be injured by a recount.—Carson Appeal.

*ABSOLUTELY PURECHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Top Prices Last Week—Range Cattle

The Chicago Live Stock Report of last Friday says the highest prices paid in that market last week were: Cattle $7.95; hogs $4.85; Sheep $3.75 per 100 pounds live weight. The decrease in the supply of range cattle was very material. The few good lots offered sold at strong and higher prices, and medium sorts sold readily at better prices. Eighteen head of Montana averaging 1,461 pounds brought $4.90 per 100 pounds, and one or two other bunches $4 to $5 per 100 pounds.

The best grades are 20 to 25 cts. and commoners sorts about 10 cts. per 100 pounds higher than a week ago.

There has also been a corresponding advance on butcher stock.

During the corresponding week last year the great bulk of the 11,000 rangers marketed were of inferior quality. Some fairly good Montanas brought $3.60 to $3.90 and Dakotas $3.50 to $3.80 per 100 pounds. Values showed no change of any note throughout the week.

The expense to Washoe county for holding the late election will exceed $3,500, and it is estimated that the cost of the election in all of the counties in the State will reach $35,000, a pretty good figure these hard times.

The State papers are advertising the departures of Salt River crafts from all points. The defeated candidates here are quietly awaiting and hoping that the officers will carry out the provisions of the vagrant law before another snow.

What May be Expected From Nye County.

The Courier of November 10 has the following:

The returns from several of the election precincts of Nye county indicate that the Silver Party State ticket received handsome majorities on the 6th instant and that the proposed Constitutional Amendments were defeated by big majorities. The proposition to elect U. S. Senators by direct vote of the people was carried by big majorities. The Belmont Courier feels confident that when all the returns are in Nye will show a big majority for the Silver party State ticket. If the balance of the counties in this State did as well as Nye, the Eastern plotters will learn once again that Nevadans can no longer be deceived by the leaders of the two old parties.

THE WOMAN OF THE WORLD.

Posters and Libelary.

We stand with the Woman of the World.
She stands twice in her war upon those unashamed posters bearing lurid pictures of actors or actresses which are to be seen at times in some of the streets of Brooklyn or even of New York. The members of the Brooklyn branch of the union who began the war there last week are enlisted in a proper cause. Some of the posters against which they have turned their arms are very offensive.

We object to these posters because of their immodesty. Some of them are markedly indecent. It is not merely because people of both sexes are pictured in tight that we object to them, for there need not be any impropriety in appearing upon the stage in decent tight or in giving pictures of those who thus appear. It is because of their essential viciousness.

We object to the public display of the vicious pictures because it is repulsive to pure minded women, young and old, wedded and unwedded, as well as to their fathers and brothers. There is proof of this in the protests that are made against them.

We object to it because it is unlawful under the statutes of the state of New York. The law in the case ought to be and can very easily be enforced without the least infringement of the rights of anybody.

We object to the bad posters for artistic reasons. The colored pictures which they bear are nearly always as clumsy and the persons represented in them often look like clowns, though in tight.

Let the law I applied to the segmental postures. In its behalf we stand with the W. C. T. U. The year that has begun in Brooklyn is a righteous

REVOLUTION IN FRANCE.

The Thinly Veiled Prophecy of a Correspondent Based on Socialistic Agitation.

The prospect grows stronger of serious manifestations of socialism in French politics during this month says the London correspondent of the New York Sun. The socialist victory in the election to fill the vacancy caused by Casimir Perier's elevation to the presidency has filled the party with enthusiasm and they no longer conceal their intention to overthrow the president by means of a coalition with his opponents in the chamber, if possible. It is repeatedly asserted that the president will not much longer rule. Dupuy at the head of the cabinet, but the rumors of a cabinet crisis appear to be premature. The Paris correspondent of the London Times even ventures a thinly veiled prophecy of revolution. He has just written:

"Neither Casimir Perier nor anybody else can do anything against socialism.
When the bourgeoisie perceive that the socialists are agreed on devouing them, differing only as to the saucy with which they are to be served up, they will recommend the game which has been going on for a century. They will be glad to see themselves into the arms of a deliverer, stipulating not for liberty or equality or anything of that sort, but simply for riddance from the nightmare of socialism. They will chain the man who allows them to go quietly to sleep and to wake without uneasiness; hence pretenders, impudent or otherwise, may be advised to say not that they love liberty, but that they love force; not fraternity, but authority; not equality, but obedience."

Chased the Chipmunk Down His Throat.

A very peculiar accident happened recently to Ebene White, farmer living about four miles northwest of St. Johns, Mich. He had been working in the woods and lay down to sleep under a tree and must have slept with his mouth open. A common mongrel pup and a small boy were his companions.
While the old man slept the boy and the dog started a chipmunk and proceeded to chase it. That chipmunk made tracks for safety, and seeing White's mouth open dodged in. It was a new sensation to White to have a chipmunk trying to get down his throat alive, and he woke up in a hurry. He nearly shocked to death before he pulled that chipmunk out, and then he killed the little animal and brought it into town to prove the truth of the story he tells.
A doctor who examined his throat and mouth found it badly lacerated and says he believes White's story is true.—Chicago Herald.

Mormon Wealth.

The great wealth either of the Mormon church or of the individuals at its head, has been again demonstrated by the recent investment of $10,000,000 by the "first presidency" in a new corporation called the Utah company. This new company is to operate coal mines, a railroad, a bathing beach and pleasure resort at the Great Salt lake, and build equip and operate telegraph and telephone lines. This is purely a church scheme, in which gentiles have no part, and is like the Zion Co-operative company, to be managed to add to the wealth of the church.—Springfield Republican.
